

SEAT FILLER GUIDELINES

As a Seat Filler, you will be expected to follow these guidelines:

- Your main purpose this evening is to assist the television production.
- In the event that a seat that can be seen by the television viewer becomes empty, you will be instructed to occupy that seat.
- You will need to be in your seat 5 minutes PRIOR to the start of the event.
- A World Wrestling Entertainment official will notify you when a seat becomes open. This is your sign to jump to action! You will be directed on where to sit.
- Remain in that seat until the “owner” of the seat returns or a WWE official instructs you to move to another location.
- It is important that you are polite to those around you. Keep in mind that the seat you are occupying probably belongs to a friend or family member of those around you. Inform these people that you are only sitting in the seat until the person returns. Also, feel free to let them know that you are assisting in the TV production. Let these folks know that they are in prime television view and keeping the seats occupied is important.
- Once the ticket holder returns, quickly look at the seats surrounding this once empty seat to see if another seats needs to be occupied. If you see another empty seats, then sit in it.

- Feel free to bring your sign with you. If you are sitting in a seat that has another empty seat next to you, then use your sign to cover that chair. This way you can cover two seats at once.
- Refrain from having too many alcoholic beverages. The last thing we need is an intoxicated seat filler. If we determine that you are visibly intoxicated you will be ejected from the arena.
- We cannot guarantee that you and your friends will always be able to stick together. You may be asked to sit in seats separate from your party. You must be willing to sit apart from your friends for periods of time. This is why no one under the age of 18 is allowed to be a seat filler. They must be willing and able to be apart from their friends and parents.
- In some instances, you might not be called upon to move into empty seats. If this happens, then just sit back and enjoy the show!
- You can take pictures of the event for your own personal use. You can also post them to your social media accounts if you want however we ask that you refrain from mentioning that you are a seat filler. We do not want the general public knowing that we use seat fillers. No videotaping whatsoever.
- At some point in the night you may be asked to move quickly and/or climb stairs. If you have any kind of physical impairment that might hinder your mobility (asthma, bad knees, etc.) please let us know before accepting this invitation.
